

HOME TEAM DESIGNING THE DREAM

By Lisa Petty

Dazing the words dream home across a journal page, virtual vignettes danced before our eyes. Would the collection of invaluable mirrors we moaned express luxury and glamor? Layers of stylized sophistication? Perhaps classic with a twist? Well, yes. And then some.

To bring our wish to life, only the ultimate team would do. The result is five rooms by five design stars, each with a unique perspective. The group boasts prestigious press, industry honors and covetable client lists – not to mention talent for days. Who better to design the home of our dreams?

"First impressions are everything, and this entry feels light, bright and fun! The combination of burn wood and bold modern art makes such a statement." —Morgan Farrow
